Employment Case Law Update, Des Ryan BL

Des Ryan BL will analyse several recent significant cases, including developments concerning: parallel proceedings in employment litigation – new guidance from the Supreme Court; suspensions, fair procedures and injunctions; considerations when conducting employment investigations in the context of parallel criminal proceedings; recent judicial guidance concerning employment settlement agreements; Supreme Court case watch – pending decisions in employment equality and unfair dismissal.

Flexible and Remote Working in Ireland – Practical Guidance for Employers further to the recent WRC Code of Practice, Siobhan Lafferty

The Workplace Relations Commission has recently published its Code of Practice for Employers and Employees on the Right to Request Flexible Working and Right to Request Remote Working. Siobhán will consider the similarities and differences between the right to flexible work and remote work and a comparison with the relevant UK legislation on flexible working. Siobhán will outline some practical tips for employers in dealing with requests and discuss what new policies should look like.

Law Firms and the Environmental, Social, Governance (ESG) Challenge, Joy-Tendai Kangere BL

Joy-Tendai Kangere BL will provide a practical overview of this recent Directive, as well as considering/focusing on how the 'S' and 'G' raise regulatory compliance issues for law firms.
