DUBLIN SOLICITORS BAR ASSOCIATION
First Floor
7 Dawson Street
Dublin 2

Dear Colleague,

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP 2027

If you are already a member of the Bar Association you will be aware of the considerable benefit which membership brings you and it is now time to renew that membership. If you have never been a member before we would earnestly urge you to join what is the largest and one of the most active Bar Associations in the country.

1. WEBSITE: www.dsba.ie which publishes useful information for members concerning, amongst other things, professional and social information.

2. SEMINARS: As popular as ever, the seminars organised by the Association continue to deal with practical topics. We are also holding many seminars of a more specialised nature where there may be a charge.

3. PRECEDENT DOCUMENTATION: The DSBA precedent documentation has received praise from numerous sources and further development of this function of the Association is anticipated.

4. THE PARCHMENT: The publication of the Association, which, as has been the case for a number of years, is available only to paid-up members.

5. THE SOLICITOR'S CONFIDENTIAL HELPLINE: In existence since 1994, this is an important assistance to members in all aspects of practice.

6. SOCIAL FUNCTIONS and SPORTS EVENTS: Held throughout the year, these functions in various guises give colleagues essential opportunities to interact with each other outside the working environment.

7. DSBA SUBMISSIONS – Our Committees and Council work hard to represent Solicitors and their interests – see recent submissions on Professional Practice, Conduct and Discipline Residential Property Transactions) Regulations 2012, Legal Services Regulation Bill 2011 amongst others.

8. DSBA YOUNGER MEMBER COMMITTEE represents the interests, both professionally and socially, of the younger and most recently qualified members of our profession, from newly qualified up to 5 years PQE. The YDS organises low cost CPD events, lectures and other events for young solicitors.

For renewal and new membership please complete the form below in full and return it together with a cheque to the Secretary, DSBA, First Floor, 7 Dawson Street, Dublin 2 or call 01 6706089 to pay by Credit/Debit Card
